Your feedback to Us

Monash is committed to excellence in education and regularly seeks feedback from students, employers and staff. One of the key formal ways students have to provide feedback is through the Student Evaluation of Teaching and Units (SETU) survey. The University’s student evaluation policy requires that every unit is evaluated each year. Students are strongly encouraged to complete the surveys. The feedback is anonymous and provides the Faculty with evidence of aspects that students are satisfied and areas for improvement.

For more information on Monash’s educational strategy, see:

www.monash.edu.au/about/monash-directions/ and on student evaluations, see:
www.policy.monash.edu/policy-bank/academic/education/quality/student-evaluation-policy.html

Previous Student Evaluations of this Unit

This unit is being offered for the first time in 2015.

Academic Overview

Learning Outcomes

On successful completion of this unit, students should be able to:

- develop and implement a publication strategy;
- manage research data and IP;
- develop and implement research funding strategies;
- apply entrepreneurial and innovative approaches to commercialising research;
- communicate and publish research findings in different forms to a range of different audiences in academic, industry and community forums;
- plan and organise PhD and Masters research, using the milestones to ensure timely completion;
- apply a range of generic and professional research skills to enhance future employability and plan a career in research.
The unit comprises workshops, boot camps and other research strategies and skills training activities. To complete the unit, students must participate in workshops, boot camps and other activities totalling the equivalent of 48 hours class time and 96 hours of other activities, including reading, preparation and undertake associated assessment tasks. The topics, the contents and the number of the workshops, boot camps and other activities offered may vary yearly depending on the need of the student cohort. Workshops and other activities may be sourced from outside the Faculty; and these workshops must be approved by the unit coordinator. The teaching methods will include workshops, boot camps, lectures and/or seminars/practical work to reinforce the learning by actively engaging students. Moodle, Alexandria and MULO will be used to facilitate participation and teaching material delivery. See the Moodle site for information about workshops and other activities. The unit runs throughout the year. There are no weekly lectures or tutorials in this unit.

*Unit Schedule details will be maintained and communicated to you via your learning system.

Feedback to you

Types of feedback you can expect to receive in this unit are:

• Other: Informal feedback relating to your portfolio of activities
Assessment Requirements

Extensions and penalties

Submission must be made by the due date otherwise penalties will be enforced.

You must negotiate any extensions formally with your campus unit leader via the in-semester special consideration process: http://www.monash.edu.au/exams/special-consideration.html

Returning assignments

Students can expect assignments to be returned within two weeks of the submission date or after receipt, whichever is later.

Assignment submission

It is a University requirement http://www.policy.monash.edu/policy-bank/academic/education/conduct/student-academic-integrity-managing-plagiarism-collusion-procedures.html for students to submit an assignment coversheet for each assessment item. Faculty Assignment coversheets can be found at http://www.infotech.monash.edu.au/resources/student/forms/. Please check with your Lecturer on the submission method for your assignment coversheet (e.g. attach a file to the online assignment submission, hand-in a hard copy, or use an electronic submission). Please note that it is your responsibility to retain copies of your assessments.

Online submission

If Electronic Submission has been approved for your unit, please submit your work via the learning system for this unit, which you can access via links in the my.monash portal.
